

The Hanover Tomato Festival strives to provide guests with a safe, comfortable and enjoyable atmosphere. All event attendees and park patrons are to abide by the following park rules and event regulations

The following are prohibited on Hanover County park property, including the event field and parking areas for the Hanover Tomato Festival:

- Alcoholic beverages, illegal drugs and illegal activities
 - Hunting
 - Profanity
 - Glass containers
- Collection of fees outside of vendor booth
 - Driving motorized vehicles or bicycles on turf/field areas or in other unauthorized areas
 - Rocket launching
 - Hot air ballooning
 - Flying model airplanes (except at Courthouse Park - in designated areas only)
 - Metal detecting
 - Golfing

Distribution of flyers, promotional materials, and such are limited to within the assigned vendor booth space. All staff and volunteers must remain within the approved vendor's space

Walkways must remain clear at all times.

All animals must remain on a leash.

Photographers are present at the Hanover Tomato Festival, and images may be used in later promotional materials. Your presence at the event serves as your permission for such promotional use by the organizers.

Those who witness other guests violating these policies should report to the nearest event staff person, volunteer or law enforcement officer.