T. Scott Harris, MCR
Commissioner

The Disabled Veteran Personal Property Discount Program provides a reduced tax rate on the vehicles of disabled veterans who meet the requirements of the program. According to Hanover County Code §22-50, one vehicle owned and regularly used by a veteran may qualify if the veteran has been certified as disabled by the Department of Veterans Services and the disability is service related. The disability must be the loss or loss of use of a leg, arm or hand, blindness as defined by Virginia State Code §46.2-739, or being permanently and totally disabled. The signed application and a copy of the statement from the Department of Veterans Services certifying the disability must be returned to the Commissioner of the Revenue in order to qualify. If you need any assistance with the application, please call the office at (804) 365-6129.
